

BRUCE CANNON; Ed.D.

Senior Associate, Agron & Associates

2503 Airfield Court
Kingman, AZ 86401

928.715.9063

rvmndirector@outlook.com

OBJECTIVE

To increase the significant contributions of those with whom I work by expanding their capacity and confidence.

EDUCATION

Doctor of Education

Dissertation Topic:
Deepening the findings of research at Harvard and Radcliffe during the 1950s regarding the processing of information by undergraduate students.

Master of Education

Curriculum and Instruction

Master of Divinity

KEY SKILLS

Communication Administration Organization
Encouragement
Problem Solving Mentoring

EXPERIENCE

Christian College President; 7 years

Christian College Academic Dean; 3 years

Senior Pastor; 17 years

Middle East Theological Worker; 5 years

College / University Adjunct Instructor; 5 years

Church and College Consultant; Present

COMMUNICATION

Author of

Incoming! How to Survive Destructive Behavior of Your Christian Leader

Throughout All Generations, a one-year theological manual for non-college bound lay ministers

Essential Topics for Young Pastors (pre-publication status)

LEADERSHIP

Reflecting a self-starting work ethic, my career is marked by leadership roles: church staff and lead pastorates; college instructor and lead administrator; consultant. My current work is to increase the ability and significance of Christian leaders around me.